Since 1978

Conference Attendance Waiver

CCUCC encourages all attendees and guests to practice proper hygiene, “social distancing” and wear face coverings to reduce the risks of exposure to COVID-19. We know this virus is extremely contagious and is spread mainly through person-to-person contact. CCUCC has adopted preventive measures to reduce the spread of COVID-19. However, we cannot guarantee that Volunteers, Attendees or guests attending this conference will not become ill or infected. We strongly recommend everyone practice safe social distancing by limiting gatherings and urge everyone to wear a face covering and practice safe hygiene.

I accept the waiver listed below

By attending CCUCC Annual Conference, you acknowledge that an inherent risk to COVID-19 and all viruses exists. Participating in this conference, all attendees & guests voluntarily assume all risk related to the exposure of COVID-19 and all viruses and illness and agree not to hold, the California Credit Union Collectors Council, its volunteers, Officers/Directors liable for any illness or injury you may incur by attending this event.
